

POLIFLEXY DELINEATOR POST

Code: ITO-PF-66 /ITO-PF-51

WHAT'S A DELINEATOR POST?

Signal used to warn people, flexible post special to delimit or sign danger zones and delineate certain roads, improving visibility in the risk area.

The main function is avoid vehicles invade prohibited zones, working to delimit highways safely.

The use of this device is suggested in groups, impeding vehicles park in crosswalks or invade risk zones.

FEATURES

- 100 % flexible and resistant to vehicle impact.
- Returns to its original position after collision.
- Withstands more than 1000 run overs (guaranteed).
- Manufactured in Poliflexy®, ductile material that doesn't cause damage to vehicles.
- Top hole to insert washer.
- Line color; yellow for a greater visibility (other colors upon request).
- 2 prismatic reflective rings to be more visible at night.
- Easy to place or to change its placement.
- Safe floor anchoring through 1 washer that holds the post, creating a more stable position and a device hard to pull up.

POLIFLEXY DELINEATOR POST

Code: ITO-PF-66 / ITO-PF-51

MEASUREMENTS

Dimensions and other measures are nominal and may vary by + / - 2%.

	Height	Ø	Weight
ITO-PF-66	26.2 in	3.8 in	1.488 lbs
ITO-PF-51	20.0 in	3.8 in	1.102 lbs

- Reflective Tape
- Height: 3.5 in
- Color of Reflective Tape
- White

ANCHORING

1. Mark the boreholes to position the post with the help of a drill and a 3/4" drill bit for concrete.
2. Drill to a 7" depth, insert the extralarge anchors in every borehole.
3. Mount the delineator post with its 3/8" washer, screw/flat washer,
4. Use a 9/16" socket wrench joined to a "T", going through the post, turn the screw to your right until is tightened enough and...
DONE!

-  21 v Ø 3/8" x 5.9 in Hex Head Ultrafix Screw
-  Flat Washer
-  Inner washer inside the post
-  Ø 0.7 in x 5.3 in Extralarge Anchor
-  Borehole in concrete

